

FAITH AT WORK: A COURSE FOR YOUR CHURCH

Do your people feel a desire for deeper connection with God in their work?
Are you looking for ways to equip Christians for mission in the workplace?

Faith at Work is a live workshop course for local churches.

- Course participants talk, pray, and learn together about faith in the workplace.
- Interactive activities make sessions lively and help the content stick.
- We guide each participant in connecting the ideas to their own work.
- Our goal: Formation that sparks healthy, joyful mission in everyday life.

Mission Central Team Leader Chris Easley helps each congregation customize Faith at Work for their context and personally facilitates the workshop sessions.
