When the servant of the man of God got up and went out early the next morning, an army with horses and chariots had surrounded the city. “Oh no, my lord! What shall we do?” the servant asked.

“Don’t be afraid,” the prophet answered. “Those who are with us are more than those who are with them.”

And Elisha prayed, “Open his eyes, Lord, so that he may see.” Then the Lord opened the servant’s eyes, and he looked and saw the hills full of horses and chariots of fire all around Elisha.

2 Kings 6:15-17 NIV

Finally, brothers and sisters, whatever is true, whatever is noble, whatever is right, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is admirable—if anything is excellent or praiseworthy—think about such things.

Philippians 4:8 NIV

QUESTIONS FOR REFLECTION

Which of these eight images is most striking to me at this moment in my life?

Do I sense that God is calling me to attend to one of these images and focus on it?

How could I welcome Jesus in that image?

How could I live out that image in my workplace?

PRACTICE TO TRY: “OPEN MY EYES”

This week at work, pray, “Open my eyes, Lord, so that I may see.”

Keep your eyes open to see where Jesus meets you during the work day.
